misrepresented to the stockholders as well as the public. In this connection I wish to say it is the stubbornness of M: continues this fight. The strike would never have occurred had it not been for him. He is now too proud to surrender. Before this strike began he told Presi-dent Perkins and the directors that 40 per cent. of the men would not go out, that they would stick by the road. When he found he was mistaken he asserted that in a few days he would have the pisces of the strikers filed. How mis-erably he has failed. He has rained the traffic on a splendid railroad system, and having lost the desperate game, he will not give up. The road is not paying expenses. When the directors of the Burlington read meet in this city on the 18th we may possibly hear of a change of policy.
